CHILD PROTECTION POLICIES OF THE MUNICIPALITY OF VENARIA REALE

The Municipality of Venaria Reale is a local public authority fully respectful with the children rights protection. The responsibilities on this field come from the Italian legislation on regional and national level. The current regulations are based on the following laws.

The main law on a national level is the law n. 183 of Camera dei Deputati, published on May 4th 1983. This legislation was modified by the same institution after the approval of the law n. 149 of 28th March 2001. The text legislates the subjects of adoption, foster care and family right for minors. Both versions can be found on the “Gazzetta Ufficiale” of the Italian Republic at the following links:
